W. E. Ashby returned Saturday from a week's camping and fishing on Green River. Twent-five miles in a wagon gave him about all the travel he was looking for, but he found the camping experience pleasant except for the fact that he could not induce the fish to bite. And "Uncle Dick" is something of a fisherman. That's what he went for. His youthful spirits, however, kept him from disappointment and there were plenty of fish to eat, supplied by local fisherman with trot lines. N. I. Toombs and family, and others, were in the party.

Sold Hogs by Telephone

A South Carolina farmer had a large number of hogs which were ready to kill. The weather was so warm that killing was out of the question.

He went to his telephone, called a dealer in Columbia over Long Distance and sold his hogs at a good price. He then called the local freight office and arranged for shipment.

The telephone is now a necessity on the farm. You can have one on your farm at small cost.
